

THE BFUU COMMUNICATOR

Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists

May 2017

Upcoming Sunday Services

Services at 10:30 a.m.

May 7: TBD

Rev. Elena Rose Vera, Worship Leader

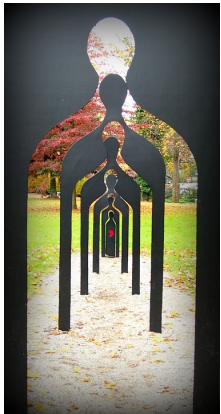

May 14: Mother's Day: Beyond the Hallmark Card

Joanna Foley, Lay Worship Leader

How do we honor mothers in a real way that goes beyond sentimental tokens? Cards are nice, so are flowers, chocolates, and brunch dates. But they wouldn't even qualify as minimum wages for the time and energy it actually takes to be a mother. Some UUs will share their appreciation of the complexity of the mother role and their heartfelt gratitude to mothers—their own and our nation's mothers such as Julia Ward Howe, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Dolores Huerta.

May 21: Someone Else's Child

Rev. Marsh Agobert, Worship Leader

The Tibetans have a saying that is also one of the core concepts in modern psychology: "Every person's main task in life is to unbecome being someone else's child." Sounds simple, yet it can take a lifetime to realize and few accomplish it.

So what? Well, this is the nexus point between politics and personal development. It casts a clarifying light on the difference between liberals and conservatives, shows us how and why the right is winning and what we can do to mitigate the impact of Apocalypse.

Joining me this morning will be members of the Indivisible movement and the conversation will be illuminating. Tell your friends!

May 28: How Women Wake the World: a Fairy Tale Guide to Real Life

Rev. Dr. Carrie Knowles, Worship Leader

Rev. Carrie Knowles considers oppression, liberation, the wisdom of the inner voice, and how the empowerment of women frees the community to live in peace, as envisioned in a Japanese fairy tale. Women can find their voice and life calling and bring hope to all.

Please note also that Rev. Carrie will meet with visitors and prospective members of BFUU in the lobby after the service, from 12:15 to 1:15PM.

Article VI. E. of BFUU By-Laws.

Come Let Your Spirit Sing!

Our weekly Choir Practice and Neighborhood Sing! continues every Wednesday evening at BFUU from 7 pm to 8:30 pm. Come join us!

These weekly sessions have helped our BFUU Choir continue to develop under the directorship of Susan Mashiyama, and bring new faces and voices to BFUU. Here is the BFUU Choir performing a beautiful song called "May the Road Rise to Meet You," an Irish blessing on the Sunday after St. Patrick's Day. Andy Jamieson is the pianist. https://youtu.be/13Id7el_7h8

Singing session schedule:

From 7 pm – 7:45 pm, we learn melodies and work on harmonies, timing, and musicality of a couple of songs that we'll sing at BFUU's Sunday services.

From 7:45 pm – 8:30 pm, we sing the songs from the first part with our wonderful pianist Andy and then relax and informally sing songs together.

Join us for either or both parts of the evening! We meet in the Preschool Kitchen. Please invite your friends and neighbors. There's no pressure to sing in the choir on Sundays. These gatherings are something BFUU offers as a service to build community.

Know-How needed: potter's bench

It seems it takes some degree of planning to build a potter's bench. All interested and/or knowledgeable people please respond directly to Jim Beatty or leave a message at the office: 510-841-4824 ext. 1

BFUU Worm Farm Needs Your Help!

BFUU needs newspapers (black ink on white newsprint only) and eggshells for worm farm!

Please leave in a neat pile in the garden behind the ramp.

The worm farm needs dry matter in the form of news print or dry leaves to keep the smell of rotting food (etc.) down. We can't start producing worm castings and compost tea for plant food unless we have brown compostable material to add to the bins. Egg shells help add nutrients to the soil.

REPORT BACK FROM NEW GROUPS!

The first meeting of "Loaves and Fishes" was really fun! A small group met with Rev. Carrie in her office. We had a great discussion about whether "God Had a Wife." This was a humorous way to get into a discussion of whether the female presence is found in people's ideas about the divine. Participants shared what they had learned from their religious education as children and how they see a possible "Ms. God" now. The next meeting will take place noon to 1 pm, Tuesday, May 9 in the Minister's Office.

Small Group Ministry got off to a good start on Wednesday, April 12 with a thoughtful and inspiring quote from Hafiz, the Persian poet. The group shared ideas about how death both destroys and saves. We also met on April 26. In May, Small Group Ministry has moved to 2nd and 4th Fridays from 2-3:30 pm - in Fellowship Hall.

We hope you can join us at future meetings!

Did you know?

If you leave a note requesting action from the office, please print your name on it. Otherwise, we won't know who to call if we have questions or who to notify when we've completed the task. Also, please date your note so we know when it was left. Finally, please follow up with us if you don't hear back in a timely manner, the note may have gone astray!

Now

“Berkeley Celebrates the 59th Birthday of the Peace Symbol” (58 min) SOCIAL JUSTICE IN THE HEART OF BERKELEY YouTube Channel. Ban the Bomb! It was Gerald Herbert Holten who created the Peace Symbol using the Navy semaphore flag signals for letters N and D for “Nuclear Disarmament.” The Peace Symbol was first on February 21, 1958 in support of the “Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament” in a march of 10,000 people from Aldermaston to London. Gerald Holten had been a conscientious objector during World War II. He was a graduate of the Royal College of Art.

“Nuclear Heartland USA - Nukewatch Book Update by John LaForge” (58 min) was published to “Social Justice in the Heart of Berkeley” You Tube Channel on March 29, 2017. John LaForge was accompanied on this speaking tour with German nuclear abolitionist activist, Marion Küpker, who represents GAAA, Gewaltfreie Aktion Atomwaffen Abschaffen (GAAA, Nonviolent Action to Abolish Nuclear Weapons). Cynthia Jean Johnson welcomed everyone, and author-activist Cecile Pineda did the introduction of John LaForge of Nukewatch.BFUU. Social Justice activists Ingrid Kepler-May, James Beatty, and Vic Sadot appear in the Q&A session. Ingrid Kepler-May is in the Q&A at around 49:10 of the 58 minute video. She engages in a discussion with speaker John LaForge about the effects of US use of depleted uranium in weapons and armor, particularly how it contaminates the environment and causes birth defects in Iraqi babies. Ingrid witnessed these results first-hand on a visit to hospitals in Iraq. We learned from John LaForge of the upcoming historic vote of the UN General Assembly on Oct 27, 2016 to make 2017 the year to push the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT) forward through UN sponsored conferences was opposed by most nuke-armed countries. The US voted against resuming talks about the obligations of NPT treaty signatories to negotiate nuclear disarmament, and the US boycotted the March conference. The next round of talks is scheduled for July.

Chairs, Chairs, Chairs! We have more new stacking chairs in the building at 1606 Bonita. All of the blue & folding chairs upstairs in the Connie Barbour, Benjy & Fireside Rooms have been replaced with the black stacking ones, some on carts in the hallway next to CB & FR. We still have a dozen on a cart in the stairwell, plus several carts of the old blue ones for use in the Preschool room meetings. This means all the chairs that belong in the Hall get to stay there from now on.

Kudos to Ed Keating and Michael Cortner for completing many sprucing-up details around the Fellowship. Check out the paint job on the doors inside the Hall. Plus, the rope lights are being replaced there, and some are being added to the Fireside Room to make it more inviting. Ed, with the help of Chris Macy, is designing a bench to be installed near the entrance to the Hall.

The Aesthetics Subcommittee is coming up with one more banner to add to our rainbow of spiritual traditions. We're mulling over the image at right ==> to represent Humanists. What do you think? Email rooms@bfuu.org to let me know!

All the best,

Deborah Hamouris, Event Space Coordinator

“Normal Is Over” A Story About Solutions

Thursday, May 4 at 6:30 PM refreshments, 7-9 PM program, in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

Meet and greet at 6:30 pm before the film. Bring healthy vegetarian snack or a refreshment to share if you can. The program begins at 7 pm. This event sponsored by: Transition Berkeley, Social Justice Committee (Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists).

Suggested Donation: $5-20 to cover event costs. No one turned away for lack of funds!
