

THE BFUU COMMUNICATOR

Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists

May 2018

Upcoming Sunday Services

Services at 10:30 a.m.

May 6: When We Were Mexico

Rev. Elena Rose Vera, Worship Leader

Many borders and flags have moved across the land where we now live and celebrate together--and, for many years, it was part of Mexico. This Cinco de Mayo, we will be exploring the rich and exciting Latinx history and heritage of Berkeley and greater Alta California – and the incredible Latinx present and future! As we share stories of our neighbors' triumphs and challenges from yesterday and today, we can learn so much about how to continue in beautiful solidarity during these precarious times.

We will also be welcoming special guest artist Ross Drago and his new installation in our Fellowship Hall. All are invited to stay after the service to enjoy the exhibition!

May 13: Lead with Love: A Mother's Day Service

Melanie DeMore, Guest Worship Leader

Please join our worship leader, Vocal Activist Melanie DeMore, and our worship associate BFUU Board Member and Activist Nanci Armstrong-Temple, to sing about love, power, and how we can inspire one another through song to create a chorus of justice and liberation to rain down all over this world. We will talk about the Activist origins of Mother's Day, give a shout out to all who nurture: mothers, mamas, babas, aunties, grandparents, friends, and more, and sing our way through the murk of the world to shine on, shine on.

May 20: The Fellowship's Hidden Heroes

Rev. Marsh Agobert, Worship Leader

How does the Fellowship run? How does it keep going? Who are the groups, the people whose clandestine work maintains us? Today we will not only reveal the teams that take care of us quietly, in the background, day by day and year after year – we will embrace this opportunity to honor them.

May 27: Decoration Day, Memorial Day and How Black Lives Began to Matter

Rev. Dr. Carrie Knowles, Guest Worship Leader

Rev. Dr. Carrie Knowles looks back at the history of the Civil War when African Americans volunteered for military service and began the struggle for equal rights as citizens of the United States of America.

Singers Serenade Seniors at the Silverado Retirement Home

On Monday, April 16, 2018
there was a BFUU-led outing where a group of seven singers brought music and melody to residents of the Silverado retirement home in North Berkeley. The group sang some golden oldies and other favorite numbers with ukulele accompaniment for the seniors, including classics such as "You Are My Sunshine." Margaret Hurlbert, who was the main organizer for the outing, with her husband and BFUU board member Jeff Palmer, said that some seniors sang along and one man even stood up and danced. At the end of the performance, another senior cried out "Encore!" The group, that included participants in the BFUU choir and music jams, and several of Dr. Susan's students, has plans to return for another musical visit next month. Please contact Jeff, Margaret, or Dr.

Susan for more information and/or to join in the ukulele learning, fellowship, and fun!

BFUU Notice of Board Positions

BFUU Nominating Committee Notice: Virginia Hollins-Davidson and Judith Granada-Dewey of the Nominating Committee hereby inform the congregation that there are three board positions and two alternate positions to which candidates will be elected at the upcoming Annual Congregational Meeting on Sunday June 10, 2018.

Members who wish to be considered for office by the Nominating Committee, must notify the Nominating Committee of their interest. Please contact Virginia or Judith.

Additional nominees, who shall previously have agreed to serve if elected, may be placed on the ballot by written petition signed by at least ten (10) voting members of BFUU, and filed with the Nominating Committee not later than the Saturday preceding the last Sunday before the election. Article VI. E. of BFUU By-Laws.

Deepening the Covenant

“Let love be the spirit of this congregation and service its goal. This is our living covenant: to swell together in peace, to seek the truths in life, and to help one another.”

We've all said these beautiful words hundreds of times. How do we move from reciting them to bringing them to life in our community?

This year the Board decided to deepen our covenant through a new approach to Stewardship. A series of small group dinners and lunches will be held. As we break bread together, we will promote connecting at a deeper level and sharing conversations about what really matters to each of us.

Each group will consist of two hosts and six or seven BFUU members. The gatherings will be hosted by Stewardship duos: Rev. Marsh and Kathy Riehle, Rev. Elena and Doug Chambers and Joanna Foley and Jeff Palmer. Keep an eye out for your invitation by email or postal.

This will be a big step towards walking our talk.

Another event of the Stewardship Season will take place on Sunday, May 20 with a Volunteer Appreciation event following the service. All the wonderful people who keep this Fellowship growing and thriving will be officially recognized and thanked with a buffet lunch.

Committee chairs, regular volunteers, Board members and lifelong activists, mark your calendars! This Sunday is for you!

UUA General Assembly June 20-24, 2018

Join us in Kansas City as we dive deeply into questions of mission for our Unitarian Universalist Association, for our congregations and communities, and for each of us as individuals.

March for our Lives

On February 14, 2018, Valentine's Day, there was a shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Southern Florida.

Out of this came a movement.

Students from an early age learned how to dodge bullets, often before they learned how to read. Many students, having seen the shooting, formed a movement against mass shootings with very specific demands.

According to an article in CNN.com, there are three principle demands from the demonstrators in 'March for Our Lives'. First, to pass a law to ban assault weapons; the second to pass laws forbidding high capacity magazines and large amounts of ammunition; while the third would be to close loopholes in this nation (USA)'s background check laws re gun purchases.

On the march-for-our-lives.com site, there are 5 principles – similar but more digital – in which a firearm registry is discussed.

I suggest reading the mission statement. Those constructing the Marchforourlives site are much more computer savvy than I. This movement is imperfect yet quite inspiring.

TODAY'S WEATHER

by Jean Marie Stine

Sunny blue skies in the morning
Darkening clouds rain by noon
Hail begins on one block walk to store
Sunny blue skies twenty minutes later walking BACK Weather?
Or our lives?
Object?
Or pond's reflection?
Blink
And both are gone

April

The universe
is blooming, transforming,
celebrating with jasmine, birdsong, and dancing daisies;
Expressing love for bugs and lilies.
Everything smells of cinnamon,
peanut butter cookies,
and budding flowers.

Berkeley Repair Café

Saturday May 5 from 11:00 to 2:30 in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

Co-organized by The Culture of Repair Project and Transition Berkeley

Co-sponsored by: The Office of Berkeley Councilmember Sophie Hahn, The Ecology Center, and the BFUU Social Justice Committee

What Repair Café Events Are:

A community gathering — some folks bring broken things, others bring know-how and tools, and yet others bring hospitality — and everyone brings goodwill and zeal for fixing.

Though free, Repair Cafés aren't free repair services.

They're participatory events — neighbors helping each other out, getting to know each other over coffee, baked treats, and repair projects, and squeezing more life out of things they already have.

Volunteer fixers will be on hand who know how to repair all kinds of things — from lamps, clothing, and toys, to bikes, mechanical, furniture, electronics, and appliances... pretty much anything that can be brought through the door. Fixers are volunteers. The fix rate runs about 70%, so your item might not be fixed. It might even get worse! Together, you'll give it a good try and learn about fixing along the way.

Volunteering: Interested in becoming a Volunteer Fixer or Host? Great! Check the website to find out what it's about and sign up. <https://www.cultureofrepair.org/call-to-volunteer>

Please register your item - more info at <https://www.cultureofrepair.org/community-repair-events/>

Co-sponsored by Councilmember Sophie Hahn

ARTIST RECEPTION: Ross Drago

Sunday, May 6 at 12:15 PM in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

Join us for an artist reception for Ross Drago, whose works are on display in Fellowship Hall. From his website, <https://rossdrago.weebly.com>, "I vowed that one day I would develop a painting style that celebrated a person's multiplicity, the many loves that live in each of us, and bring this diversity all together into a unified, integrated style of painting. This was developed over many decades. I call it Moduleart. Moduleart contains many diverse styles of painting, in triangles, squares, hexagons, pentagons and octagons that lock together into a single piece."

Tribute to Robert Parry

Saturday, May 19 at 2 PM in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

Robert Parry was instrumental in exposing the truth about the Nicaraguan Contras, the Cocaine shipments into the US and Ronald Reagan's "October Surprise." For breaking these stories, instead of winning a Pulitzer Prize, he was slowly but surely pushed OUT of mainstream media.

Parry then founded Consortiumnews which continues today as one of the best sources of analysis about international events.

Guest speakers at the event will include:

- * Sam Parry, son of Robert
- * Joe Lauria, new editor of Consortiumnews
- * Natylie Baldwin, contributor to Consortiumnews
- * Dennis Bernstein, KPFA Flashpoints
- * Norman Solomon, co-author with Robert Parry
- * Ann Wright (by video), contributor to Consortiumnews

This event will honor the great journalist Robert Parry and discuss the importance of Consortiumnews going forward.

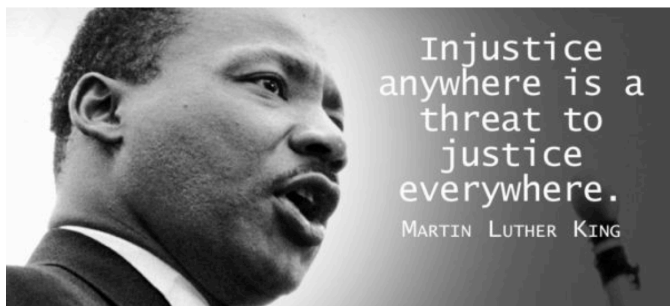

Tickets are available at the door or in advance via brownpapertickets.com

Sponsored by the BFUU Social Justice Committee.

Price: sliding scale $10 to $20. No one turned away for lack of funds.

The Plot to Kill Martin Luther King Jr. There's more to history than you might think!

Saturday, May 19 at 7:00 PM in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

In two films, Prime Suspects: Who Killed Martin Luther King Jr.? (Court TV, 2000, 37 min.) and Truth At Last: The Assassination of Martin Luther King (James Corbett, 2018, 51 min.), the official story of the murder is convincingly disproved – James Earl Ray did not kill King – through the decades-long work of William F. Pepper, attorney, investigator, and author, an influential friend of Martin King in the last year of his life, and attorney for the King family. Pepper, in his third and final book on King's 1968 murder, The Plot to Kill King (2017), revealed the disturbing truth with startling and explosive conclusions largely ignored by the media.

A discussion will follow the screening of the films.
