

THE BFUU COMMUNICATOR

Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists

December 2016

Upcoming Sunday (and Christmas Eve) Services Services at 10:30 a.m. except Christmas Eve at 5PM

December 4: Songs of Leonard Cohen sung by The Conspiracy of Beards

The male choir, The Conspiracy of Beards, performs dynamic, original, a cappella arrangements of the poetic songs of Leonard Cohen. Drawing on influences ranging from jazz and gospel to barbershop and doo-wop, the unique arrangements that choir members create capture all of the emotion and humor of Leonard Cohen's original music and inspire audiences to ponder common human experiences. Some of the songs in the service will be Suzanne, Hallelujah, Come Healing and If It Be Your Will. This is an occasion to celebrate the life of Leonard Cohen, in light of his passing.

December 11: Conflict and Compromise

Rev. Marsh Agobert, Worship Leader

Most of us learned the value of compromise during our growing years. This may work in the moment, but are we safe? Or is the soothing feeling only momentary? We must use the moment of pause, the brief moment of suspension and fleeting instant of safety not to lull ourselves into a torpid trance but to focus awareness on the Dream we say we want.

December 18: Songs in the Night

Rev. Elena Rose Vera, Worship Leader

As we move toward the winter solstice and the longest night of the year, we may grapple with the ancient human fear of the dark--but what can the darkness teach us? In our brightly-lit modern world, so often devoid of quiet and solitude, what does the night still mean? Let us join together to find the consolation and beauty in the long night, the truths in hidden places, and courage for when we cannot see what lies ahead.

Saturday December 24: Christmas Eve Candlelight Service

Please join us at 5:00 PM for our Christmas Eve service. Hear beautiful music, sing carols, and enjoy the season with us. Please bring something warm (socks, gloves, hats, scarves) or food (nonperishable, peanut butter or cans with pop tops) for our homeless sisters and brothers. The collection will be donated to Berkeley Food and Housing.

December 25: Christmas Tree, Oh Christmas Tree

Rev. Dr. Carrie Knowles, Worship Leader

Perhaps from the beginning of time, humans have celebrated the solstice, the rebirth of the sun, with festivals of light and song, and the sacred gift of trees symbolized in the yule log. Rev. Dr. Carrie Knowles reflects on the many traditions that enliven the holiday season.

Happy Harvest Fellow BFUU Congregants:

This Holiday season sees us building on the recovery that we all gained through our Process of Discernment Workshops and just plain talking out what we as a Fellowship want our future to look like.

We said that we wanted to take our time before hiring a settled minister. We said that we wanted more committed members to join us and help our Fellowship to grow. We decided that Small Group Ministry meetings would help to knit our Beloved Community together. We sought more transparency in our leadership.

The new Ministerial team project is almost ready to go live! Revs Elena, Marsh and Carrie are our final selections for the three ministers (at least until the end of June.)

Regular attendees of Sunday morning service have already had a chance to see and hear them preach, and the board is assigning them other jobs here according to their varied skills. Here's a little information about each of them:

The Rev. Elena Rose Vera, originally hailing from rural Oregon, has distinguished herself as a political and theological writer with a focus on the intersections between colonial history, race, gender, and queer liberation. Between touring nationally as an acclaimed preacher and educator and working as a minister-at-large in marginalized communities, she emphasizes a compassionate approach rooted both in deep scholarship and a commitment to making that work broadly accessible. A board member both of Solar Cross Temple, a pagan service organization, and San Francisco's historic Church for the Fellowship of All Peoples, Elena lives and labors in the East Bay.

Rev. Marsh Agobert is an ordained minister who served at the First Unitarian Church of Oakland in the 70s and 80s. He has long practiced psychotherapeutic treatment and has successfully worked with individuals, couples, families and the actively psychotic. Marsh is an experienced management consultant (he prefers small and mid-sized businesses) and a life coach, which well utilizes his broad background. Marsh has extended experience in several spiritual practices including martial arts, and other yogas.

Rev. Dr. Carrie Knowles is a graduate of Starr King who was called to UU ministry after careers in psychology and law. She provides spiritual care to the BFUU community on a part-time basis, and leads Sunday Services as guest speaker at BFUU and other Bay Area UU churches.

Before moving on to fellow Board of Trustee member Frankie Hill's brief report back from last month's Semi-Annual Congregational meeting, I need to announce that our beloved Board member Frankie Hill, along with his partner Jean-Marie Stine, is moving to Oregon in mid-December – we thank them for their devoted service to BFUU! Jeff Palmer was chosen and has agreed to replace Frankie on the Board of Trustees. We are in the process of appointing a second Alternate.

As for the Congregational Meeting, Frankie writes:

The meeting was short (over by 1:30!) and uncomplicated. We elected the new Nominating Committee (Joanna Foley, Virginia Hollins-Davidson, Abbot Foote, Elayne Ryder, Gene Herman and Holly Harwood) and then heard a summarizing history, and current progress report, on the Three-Minister Plan from Jeff, Chair of the Ministerial Coordinating Committee/Sunday Services. Lastly, Elayne handed out a survey re. people's general impressions of BFUU, what kind of social justice project we would like to focus on, and other things. After some announcements, we ended with a rousing chorus of Lean on Me in which Nanci, Elinor, Doug and the rest of us brought the house down.

That's all for now. I'm sure this gives an idea of what's happening here at the Fellowship. There is, of course, much much more. I am always available at Sunday Services and at our public Board of Trustees meetings on the 4th Thursday of the month, (which will be moved to the third Thursday for the month of December only.)

Community Voices

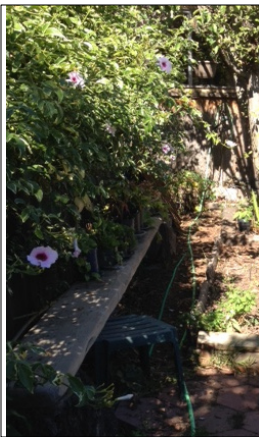

Dear members and friends,

It is with sadness that I must inform you that Jean Marie Stine and Frankie Hill are moving to Eugene, Oregon at the end of December. Their love, commitment and passion for BFUU touched many of us and they will be sorely missed!

Please join us, December 11th, after Sunday Service, in the Hall for a “sending off in style and wishing you well” party!

December 11th is the second Sunday Potluck, so, if you can, please bring a special potluck to share!

This is a simple love that started in a simple place,
they knew when we knew;
a glance, and the destination
was chosen.

It was always here we would end up,
here, and nowhere else.
Thank you for the trust that began so early,
and grew so swift.

You are all
I never had to wait for, the uncanny sense of direction,
when we should have been lost.
Thank you,
for guiding me
home.

-Tyler Knott Gregson-

We love you, BFUU, and we will miss you deeply.

Poetry Corner

little stones

she must have found them in the woods and streams near the places she lived found each one as she found four-leaf clovers said "I find one and it gives me the good luck to find another"
 picked up each stone
 each round stone
 each oval or flat stone
 this one smooth, this one rough all of them small—they had to be small—and turned them over in the palm of her hand
 each one as familiar as each old bottle in the window
 the spidery driftwood found long ago the pewter plate, bent with age each stone
 chosen for its smallness its roundness
 its smooth worn-ness
 or its roughness
 like her hands
 after working in the garden

Take a knee

Take a knee friend
 So what do you see
 The land of the brave
 The home of the free
 A beloved community
 Blessed by thee
 If you open your eyes friend
 With your knee on the ground
 You will see
 Injustice abound
 All around Oppression
 Intolerance
 Bigotry
 And such
 The Caucasian
 Christian Community
 Ain't loving others that much
 Red man
 Black man
 Brown man
 YOU
 Shot to death
 By the protected blue

 With your knee on the ground
 Your eyes on that prize
 America the beautiful
 We ain't there yet
 YO
 A kneelin n a teachin
 Love and empathy
 Fairness for all
 And accountability
 We'll travel that road
 All of you Ready
 Set Go.

The Artist's Banner reception on Sunday, 11/20, was a terrific celebration of art and community spirit. The Spark Collective performed an appropriate song; Virginia Hollins-Davidson introduced the project; Abbot Foote gave us some history; and Emma Lehman, the artist herself, gave a few remarks about the creation of the banners, as well as answered a few questions from the audience. Lots of good food was available thanks to our donors Andronico's, Safeway, Saul's and The Cheeseboard Collective. A lovely way to inaugurate these multi-faith banners into the life of the Fellowship!

Deborah Hamouris, Event Space Coordinator

Members of the Spark Collective open the reception with a song, "Children of the Earth Tribe"

Emma Lehman, the Artist who created the new banners shares insights on her creative process.

Abbot Foote, Co-Chair, Buildings and Grounds Committee provides historical background.

Virginia Hollins-Davidson, Chair, Aesthetics Subcommittee welcomes everyone.

Fellowship Hall (1924 Cedar St) is accessible by a ramp on the Bonita Avenue side. The Preschool rooms are only reservable by BFUU groups and are accessible on the ground level of our Religious Education Building (1606 Bonita Ave). At this time the Connie Barbour, Fireside, and Benjy Rooms on the 2nd floor of our Religious Education Building are not wheelchair accessible.

Transition Berkeley Presents: Potluck, Singing & Discussion

Let Our Voices Be Heard

Thursday, December 1 at 6 PM refreshments, 7-9 PM program, in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

Please join us for a relaxing evening of nourishment for body and soul. We'll share a warm and healthy potluck supper accompanied by the mellow sounds of live piano music.

After dinner we'll be treated to an improvisational song circle led by Berkeley artist and circle song enthusiast Phoebe Ackley. We'll circle around as we lift our voices in harmony under Phoebe's skillful guidance, creating unique and lively songscapes as we respond to her cues.

Following our singing we'll exchange ideas for making the winter holidays stress free and waste free. (Bring your favorite ideas to share with others.)

We'll close the evening with a half hour practice session for the active listening skills we learned last month from empathy expert, Edwin Rutsch. Edwin will facilitate Empathy Circles in which each of us will have a chance to be a speaker in a small group and an active listener. Active listening is key to opening channels of communication with those you disagree with. People are more willing to listen when they feel fully heard.

So come on out, lift your voice and open your ears for a joyful, sustainable and just future.

This event sponsored by: Transition Berkeley, Social Justice Committee (Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists), and Citizens' Climate Lobby.

Suggested Donation: $5-20 to cover event costs. No one turned away for lack of funds!

Bring: An earth-friendly potluck dish or refreshment to share at 6 pm.

Women's Meeting

Sunday, December 4 after service (around noon) in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

Women of BFUU are invited to gather after services in the main Hall the first Sunday in December. We will discuss BFUU, ideas for the future, etc.

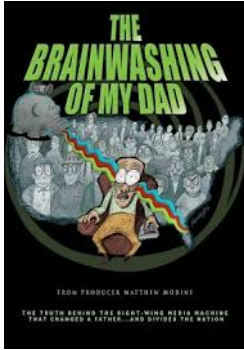

Please check out our BFUU Facebook Videos Section. You may be surprised at how this "growing garden of harvest" is enhancing BFUU ability to chronicle its living history and to interface with social justice concerns with community partners in the San Francisco Bay Area! We also have a growing number of Photos and Photo Albums that you may enjoy. And sharing them helps our little pebbles tossed to have some ripple effects.

Conscientious Projector Presents “The Brainwashing of My Dad”

Thursday, December 8 at 7 pm in Fellowship Hall—1924 Cedar St.

“The Brainwashing of My Dad” is a documentary film by acclaimed filmmaker Jan Senko, which examines the rise of the right-wing media machine through the conversion of her non-political Democratic party father to become a supporter of Rush Limbaugh, Fox News et al. It powerfully shows how a father and a nation can become radicalized. It shines light on a propaganda machine can have a profound influence especially after the Fairness Doctrine was removed in 1987. Don't miss this compelling story.

Sponsored by the BFUU Social Justice Committee. Suggested donation $5-$20. No one turned away for lack of funds.

The Oasis (open mic) with Featured Artists Roger Brown & Leslie Thorne

Friday, December 9 at 6:30 PM sign up / 7 PM start in Fellowship Hall—1924 Cedar St.

Join us for BFUU’s monthly Open Mic night! First come, first choice of 10-minute slots, available until the slots fill up. Featured Artist performs around 8:30 PM.

Roger Brown, originally from New York, has lived in Berkeley since 1979. He has been involved in the local music scene since the early 90’s as a blues guitar player. He also plays bass and harmonica, and writes original songs in a variety of styles. Leslie Thorne is also originally from New York. She plays the upright Bass in a variety of genres, including jazz, swing, blues, and folk. Leslie formed her band Yanqui Gumbo earlier this year with Roger and several other players, and they perform locally. They will be performing originals and covers out of their eclectic set list. They can be seen locally every third Tuesday at Caff  Trieste in Berkeley with their full band.

December's host Hali Hammer is an award winning singer-songwriter and social activist who has been performing in the Bay Area for over four decades. She is a founding member of Occupella, plays bass and sings with Jump-In (which performs "folk & oldies - don't say it too fast) performs with The ReSisters, and can be found on many You Tube videos. Her latest CD is called Eclectic Circus, and a new one is in the works.

$5-$20 suggested donation. No one turned away for lack of funds.

Tibetan Festival of Light

Friday, December 23 at 7 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall—1924 Cedar St.

Ventul Rinpoche, who teaches reading and writing to Tibetan children on Sunday afternoons at BFUU, offers this gift in gratitude for the community's help with the Tibetan Resettlement Project. Everyone is invited to come for homemade soup and cookies with butter tea or sweet tea. Chanting & meditation are optional. Rinpoche-la pays for all the food and cooks it himself, over a three-day period, as his gift to the community. Please come and accept the Tibetans' generosity.

You are all invited to begin the Unconditional Love Qwire's 2.0 start-up! Regular rehearsals will begin on 1/5/17, meeting the 1st & 3rd Thursday of each month.

Bring a song you want to sing with us.

We'll be meeting in the kitchen of the preschool, so bring your childlike wonder with you. If this space works for everyone, it will be our new home.

Donations are welcome to defray costs and support the director. Absolutely NO ONE TURNED AWAY! We want your voice and spirit to soar in song with us.

With great love,

Deborah "DJ" Hamouris, Director 510/910-2574 or deborahj@djhamouris.com

Empowered Communication Series at BFUU

Come for Empowered Communication Tuesdays 1/10 & Mondays 2/6

Have you ever noticed thoughts like this?

- I just want it to be easier to talk to you!
- I keep getting stuck doing what I always do
- My boss is a terrible communicator
- I wish people would stop being so judgmental

Nonviolent Communication can give you new ways to talk and listen so you get your point across without conflict. And you'll learn how to be gentler with yourself, too.

If you want to dig in and start changing things, you can join the 5-week Tuesday Empowered Communication series starting January 10th, 6-9pm. There is a special $50 discount on the Empowered Communication series for BFUU community members only. Call me if you have any questions.

If Tuesdays don't work for you, there will be a Monday Empowered Communication series starting February 6th, with an Introductory Evening on 1/30.

More great classes coming soon!
