

THE BFUU COMMUNICATOR

Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists

October 2015

Upcoming Sunday Services

(Services at 10:30 a.m.)

October 4: Putting the Pieces of the Puzzle Together: The "I" that is "We"

Joanna Foley, Worship Leader

Joanna Foley, a BFUU member, social worker and former journalist, reflects on how personal growth and community building can and often do reinforce each other. Or as the Buddha used to say, "All is One."

October 11: The Elephant in the Room is God

Rev. Dr. Carrie Knowles, Guest Worship Leader

In her sermon, Rev. Dr. Carrie Knowles explores why we're often embarrassed to say the word "God." In crises, we look to our faith to sustain us. We UU's are eloquent about the God within and serving the world with compassion. But, is there compassion in the cosmos beyond ourselves?

October 18: Etty Hillesum: "Life is beautiful, in spite of everything"

Stephanie Kroner, Guest Worship Leader

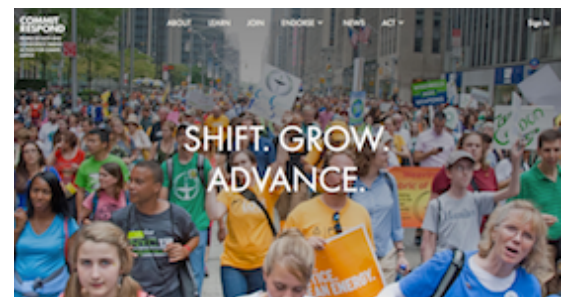

Etty Hillesum was a remarkable Jewish woman from the Netherlands. Her deeply spiritual letters and diaries, kept between 1941 and her death in 1943 in Auschwitz, were published in 1981. While many fled Nazi occupied Amsterdam, Etty Hillesum consistently turned down offers to go into hiding. She said that she wished to "share her people's fate" and wrote that "life is beautiful, in spite of everything." What are some of the pieces of wisdom that Etty left behind and how are they relevant to us today?

October 25: Pathways to Redemption: Climate Justice/Just Transition

Rev. Kurt A. Kuhwald, Guest Worship Leader

We have come to it ... the decision point. We have come to the realization that as UUs we must commit to respond to the greatest challenge human kind has ever faced ... we must take our place, offer our gifts ... we must, together, take the redemptive pathway to climate justice and a just transition for all people, all species and Commit 2 Respond.

Hello Fellow BFUUs!

A lot has happened in the last two months! Our budget is set in place to carry us through the coming year and we have new structures in place to help support our membership and many services left unaddressed until now.

Our budget has been revised and approved for 2015-16, to include duties usually performed by our minister: ministerial guest speakers for Sunday Services, pastoral care services, right relations services, and a discernment process to make decisions about our fellowship's directions going forward. We also approved much needed buildings and grounds maintenance and repairs, including a new roof (already on!) and substructure for future solar panels, and Fellowship Hall retrofitting solutions.

As I understand it, the Caring Committee is currently in the process of hiring a temporary pastoral care minister for fellowship members in need, especially those members with health and/or mobility issues.

As many of you know, on Sunday, September 13th, we held the first of what is hopefully a series of process of discernment meetings from 1- 4 p.m. in Fellowship Hall, with Marlena Willis as facilitator. Members responded to questions about what has and has not worked in the past for our fellowship, what we are currently wanting to have happen, and how we can structure and further our discernment process with outside facilitators. As a next step, UU facilitator Jared Finkelstein of Living the Seven Principles (<http://livingsevenprinciples.com>) will attend our next Board meeting (9/24/15) and come to coffee hour after our 9/27/15 Sunday Service so that we can talk with him about how his organization might help us navigate the discernment process over the next year. For more information on this, please contact Nanci Armstrong-Temple, chair of the Discernment Process Task Force, at fraggle94@gmail.com.

I will be out of the country until October 7th. In the meantime, please direct questions and comments normally addressed to me to Doug Chambers, Board Vice-President at dougplaysmusic@gmail.com.

In love and fellowship,

Pam Norton

President, BFUU Board of Trustees

Discernment Task Force Report

About 30 members participated in the discernment process workshop we conducted Sunday, September 13th, in the afternoon after the service and potluck. We provided child care for three children.

We talked about where we come from (BFUU history-have we been effective in our fellowship and our surrounding community?) what we are (studied our vision and mission statements-are we who we say we are?) and where are we going (what comes next for BFUU?)

If you have notes to share from the meeting, please forward a copy to Frankie Hill (frankie.hill@gmail.com)

There were many findings from the day, that are being collected into a document that will be available to the congregation. One important one is that most members felt that the vision and mission statements need to be revisited and most likely revised to reflect a more concise and relevant statement about who we are and what we do.

The Discernment Task Force asked for help from the congregation for the process. The congregation is willing to have help from outside facilitators and would like the opportunity to meet and research those facilitators before they are hired for a more in-depth process. The DTF recommended a team consisting of Jared Finkelstein and Gregory Rouillard of Living Seven Principles (website link below), with Marlena Willis as a third facilitator and helper in this process. The congregation has already met and worked with Marlena. Jared, representing both himself and Gregory, is planning to attend the board meeting Thursday and has also been invited to attend coffee hour after the service Sunday.

If there is no objection after Sunday, and if the facilitators are available, we would like to start planning a beloved community weekend and/or other events on November 7th and 8th to continue the discernment process. The focus of that workshop/weekend would be Mission and Vision.

In the meantime, we encourage all members to participate as much as possible in congregational activities and leadership opportunities wherever possible. Attending committee meetings, services, small groups and social/action events help build our skills and our communities. Some useful resources for leadership development:

Anti-Gun Violence/Ceasefire Walks in Richmond

You can take action in support of the Black Lives Matter and anti-gun violence movements every Friday night. Walks originate at a different church in Richmond and somewhere between 100 - 200 people show up each time. We can actually do something about the racist system in our country, that disproportionately targets young black men.

The following is the schedule for the next two months (all at 7:00 PM in Richmond, CA):

Oct 2	Bethlehem MBC	684 Juliga Woods St.
Oct 9	Zion Hill Missionary Baptist	5150 Bayview Ave.
Oct 16	Greater Abundant Life Ministries	671 9th Street
Oct 23	New Hope Missionary Baptist	321 Alamo St.
Nov 6	St. Mark's Catholic Church	159 Harbor Way
Nov 13	Miracle Temple APC	2425 Cutting Blvd.
Nov 20	Sion Miracle Temple	1320 Sanford Ave
Nov 27	New Hope Missionary Baptist	321 Alamo St.

For more information, please contact Rev. Donnell R. Jones, a community organizer at 510-331-3605 or donnell@ccisco.org. We hope you will join us!

Tip from Ardys on Choosing Greener

7 Generations is a great company. Love their recycled paper goods, detergents etc. People order large amounts of product from them.

Problem, 7 Generations is from Vermont, a fascinating state, on the Atlantic coast, a distance from the Pacific coast where most of us live.

More fuel is used when shipping something from a greater distance. Less fuel is used when shipping product from somewhere in California for example. Using something taking less fuel is best in decreasing climate change.

SpiCon Action Report

I'm not sure how I missed out on the experience of being in a UU open covenant group over the years. Why did my various committees and work groups seem more compelling at the time? But based on my current experience, with SpiCon, I see that I missed a lot. I joined this covenant group because I was relatively new to Berkeley and BFUU and seeking a support group. I wanted to share stories from my personal life in a safe small group setting before letting the whole Fellowship in on my day to day stuff and my deeper issues. What I got was so much more! Support yes but support in a spiritual context--doing meditations and other exercises together, then processing what we discover. All accompanied by the usual components of UU worship--lighting the chalice, readings, poems, songs, chants and extinguishing the chalice. We take turns creating the program. I often find that I'm teaching just what I most need to learn. So check us out. First Thursday of each month, 7 pm, usually in the Benjy Room, unless someone has an issue with stairs. Please read about this month's meeting in Recurring/Ongoing BFUU events.

Many projects were done during the New School's summer break, recently, thanks to Ed Keating and his crew. Here is a picture of the new roof! The floor in the Hall was also refinished and shines beautifully. And the first of four new blinds has been installed on the clerestory windows, to help cut down light when we are using the projector during daylight hours. See the old type (Before) and new (After) in the photo. All four blinds will be installed soon. Please note the blind pull near the rainbow "Welcome" sign" and feel free to ask if you have questions on how to raise & lower them.

The beautiful, durable new roof on the Hall!

Jeff Palmer finished installing new toilets in both buildings and now ALL of them are low-flow. This is terrific as it lowers our overall water use! And more secure windows have been installed in the Benjy Room.

The banner project is still in the pipeline and we hope to have new banners hung within a month or two. What with the painting that was done earlier, the Hall will look marvelous in time for the holiday season this year!

The Fellowship Hall (1924 Cedar St) is accessible by a ramp on the Bonita Avenue side of the Hall. The Preschool rooms are only reservable by BFUU groups and are accessible on the ground level of our Religious Education Building(1606 Bonita Ave). At this time the Connie Barbour, Fireside, and Benjy Rooms on the second floor of our Religious Education Building (1606 Bonita Ave.) are not wheelchair accessible.

Screening the Green Film Series: Tapped

Thursday, October 1 at 6:30 Meet & Greet, 7 PM film in Fellowship Hall–1924 Cedar St.

TAPPED is a beautifully filmed, compelling documentary in which Stephanie Soechtig and Sara Olsen explore the environmental consequences of bottled water. The film begins with: By 2030, two thirds of the world will not have access to clean drinking water. The film also covers chemical pollution, plastic pollution, mile wide plastic soups in the ocean, water privatization and community water rights.

Our partner, Food and Water Watch, is a national organization that champions healthy food and clean water for all. We will be joined by Liz Solorio of FWW, and Juliana Gonzales of The Watershed Project for a discussion after the film.

Please bring food and/or drinks to share. In keeping with the film's message let's try not to bring any plastic containers! This event is wheelchair accessible and cosponsored by Transition Berkeley, Food and Water Watch and BFUU's Social Justice Committee.

Suggested Donation $5 - $20. No one turned away for lack of funds.

Conscientious Projector Film Series: They Were Promised the Sea

Thursday, October 8 at 7 PM in Fellowship Hall—1924 Cedar St.

"They Were Promised the Sea" is an Award-winning documentary by Kathy Wanza that tells the story of the 1960s exodus that virtually emptied Morocco of its Jewish population. A visually beautiful and musically rich film that explores loss and longing, it also exposes the political manipulation that resulted in the breaking up of communities that had been living together for 2,000 years.

Suggested Donation $5 - $20. No one turned away for lack of funds.

BFUU Open Mic Featuring Gary Hicks

Friday, October 9 at 7 PM in Fellowship Hall—1924 Cedar St.

Join us for BFUU's monthly Open Mic night! First come, first choice of 10-minute slots, available all evening or until the slots fill up. Featured Artist(s) perform around 8:30 PM.

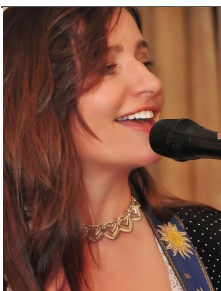

Featured artist Gary Hicks has been involved in civil rights, housing advocacy, peace with justice and cultural preservation for the last five decades. Author of two volumes of poetry plus numerous publications, he is a member of the Boston Liberation Poets Collective and the Revolutionary Poets Brigade of San Francisco.

October host Cynthia Jean Johnson is a well-known Berkeley community activist. She is Vice-Chair of the BFUU Social Justice Committee. Cynthia also serves on the Local Station Board of KPFA Pacifica, the Ecumenical Peace Institute, and Marin Interfaith Task Force on the Americas. Cynthia has long understood the power of songs of struggle and the role of music in keeping people in touch with what matters most.

Suggested donations of $5 – $20 will support the work of the Social Justice Committee. No one turned away for lack of funds! Volunteers appreciated!

The Eleventh Annual New Way Media Fest: Peaceful Solution

Saturday, October 10 at 2 PM in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

This event includes a 5-minute film by David Randolph and presentations by Clara Bellino, the Word-Music Continuum and MC David Madgalene. There will be an Open Mic hosted by SJC.

Suggested donations of $5 – $10. No one turned away for lack of funds.

Concert for Palestinian Children in West Bank and Gaza

Saturday, November 21 at 7:30 PM in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

Performance by Michael Dabroski, violinist

Michael has done numerous benefits for Palestinian children. His orchestra, the Burlington Ensemble, in Vermont has played widely.

Michael's program incorporates the classics, plus his own Suite for Palestine, and Suite for Gaza, based on his experiences there in the summer of 2014. He will share his experiences in Gaza, as well as the West Bank. Among other experiences, he had the opportunity to play with the young children's orchestra at Aida Refugee Camp.

This performance will be the first on the West Coast at which the Shehada Shalalda violin made in Palestine will be played.

Sponsors will include BFUU's Social Justice Committee, and Middle East Children's Alliance.

All proceeds beyond expenses will go to Palestinian children in West Bank and Gaza, tentatively distributed by MECA and Tree of Life.

Jazz in the Neighborhood: The Klobas/Kesecker Ensemble

Friday, October 16, 8-10 PM in Fellowship Hall – 1924 Cedar St.

The Klobas/Kesecker Ensemble is a progressive jazz quartet that focuses on original arrangements of mainstream jazz with unique original compositions that have power and grace. Our vibes, guitar, bass, drums quartet is a rhythmic driven ensemble with dynamic contrast rarely experienced in a more traditional sax/piano setting. The Klobas/Kesecker Ensemble's first CD 'No Gravity' hit #34 on the 'All About Jazz' national radio play list and our just released CD 'Moment's Notice' is being played across America, Europe and Puerto Rico. Mark Gallo of Jazz Review wrote about 'No Gravity' , "This self-produced release exemplifies the healthy state of independent jazz" and "is a wholly riveting and engaging 10-song delight."

United Nations 2.0: Transforming the United Nations to Create a World of Peace, Justice, and Sustainability

Saturday, October 24, 7:30 PM in Connie Barbour Room–1606 Bonita Ave.

The United Nations is 70 years old. It's a venerable institution. But the UN is also plagued by a very mixed record. Should we reform it? Or just start over?

Very urgent challenges now require immediate attention at the global level—but the UN is increasingly ill-equipped to handle these issues. Its antiquated structure, obsolete veto power, and lack of democratic participation are major obstacles to the future progress of humankind. But where do we go from here? A world-renowned expert on UN reform, Dr. Glen Martin, offers a way out based on his newest book, One World Renaissance. See <http://oneworldrenaissance.com/>
